I am feeling very happy to inaugurate a seven-day national integration camp of NSS at Jagannath Kishore College under Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University from 16th December, 2021 to 22nd December, 2021. Prosperous volunteers represent a large area of our country from states of Maharashtra, Rajasthan, Madhya Pradesh, Assam, West Bengal, Odisha, Bihar, Tripura and Jharkhand reflect unity and diversity of India. These responsible citizens of India as NSS volunteers learned yoga, meditation, self defence training for women and donation of their manual labour – shramdaan to the days vibrant. The camp also had the privilege of having lectures on environment, health, hygiene, cleanliness in interactive mode. Joyful and sonorous evening helped the audience travel greater cultural India.

I am sure that this weeklong camp provides impetus to the volunteers in their entire life and make memorable their immense dedication, hard work, determination, camaraderie and mutual trust among each other.

We are very much thankful to volunteers from different regions who undertook all the activities of this camp with utmost sincerity. The camp witnessed in true sense the motto of 'Not me but you'. This cooperation and unity among the participants, local administration turned to a tribute for JK College to reach in a grand success.

On behalf of J K College and our university, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to the entire programme officers, volunteers, officials, support staff, media and everyone who become witnessed to this exciting camp in spite of many shortcomings.

Best Wishes

It has been a great pleasure and entirely our privilege to host a seven-day National Integration Camp of NSS at our campus of J.K. College, Purulia affiliated to Sidho-Kanho-Birsha University, Purulia with the financial support from the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports and under the overall guidance of Regional Directorate of NSS, Kolkata Region from 16th to 22nd December 2021 with the theme Youth for Clean India & Green India. The camp reflected a mini-India where 211 volunteers & P.O. from 14 different states participated. The volunteers were given training on physical fitness, self-defence & Yoga with the experts. They also learned how to cope up plastic pollution and to prepare eco-bricks with the plastic wastes. The camp also had the privilege of having lectures on burning environmental issues, their possible solutions, self-power, message of Swami Vivekananda for Youths etc. with the experts in the respective fields. The evenings were highly colourful showing the colourful historical and cultural tradition and the diversity of the country. The purpose of the camp was to make the participants aware about the importance of cleanliness and a healthy environment and to develop the concept of integration integrity and collaboration through mutual interactions.

I am very much hopeful that the seven-day camp which is a meaningful step towards creation of accomplished social leaders, efficient administrators and good human beings. The volunteers showed immense dedication, hard work, determination, friendship and mutual trust among each other. We are very thankful to volunteers from different regions who undertook all the activities of this camp with utmost sincerity. The camp witnessed in true sense the motto of 'Not me but you'. The seven-day camp will be remembered by the campus for ever. After the departure of the volunteers the emptiness was felt. We tried our best to make the stay pleasant and comfortable as far as possible, but if any deficiencies remained the college takes the humble responsibility and tenders absolute apology. On behalf of the college, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all the programme officers, volunteers, officials, support staff, media and everyone who became witness to this exciting camp in spite of many short comings.

Finally, I would like to offer my gratitude to respected Shri Vinay Kumar, Regional Director, RD NSS Kolkata for having faith on us and giving this opportunity to conduct the camp.
