

CAPACITY BUILDING AND SKILLS ENHANCEMENT INITIATIVES, 2023-24

With a number of operational MoUs with various industries and academic institutions a series of initiatives were undertaken for capacity building and skill enhancement of the students. Job-oriented trainings to around 1500 students and campus placements to more than 20 students were the highlights. A number of Skill Development Workshops including workshops on spoken English, soft skills, digital literacy, and entrepreneurship were arranged.

NOTICE

The college has received proposal from Axis Bank for a CSR project which is executed by the National Institute of Securities Markets (NISM) through its Empanelled Resource Person on “Financial Literacy for Youth”. The program will also make aware about the career opportunities available in Securities Markets.

This program aims to assist learners in career planning and to encourage them to engage in self – improvement activities. Objective of this initiative is to equip the student to face any interview more confidently if an opportunity in security market entities comes their way.

The program will cover the following topic:

- Importance of Investments
- Introduction to Securities Markets;
- Primary Markets and Secondary Markets;
- Mutual Funds;
- Precautions for Investing;
- Investor Protection and Grievances Redressal Mechanism;
- Career opportunities in securities markets
- Any other topic as approved by NISM.

* Terms and conditions

- Only final year students (both UG & PG) may apply
- No fees are required for the course.
- Course durations have two options i.e., either 2 hours for 5 days or 5 hours for 2 days.
- Batch capacity should not exceed 150.

Quick responses from the aspirants are expected because the career counselling and placement cell needs to intimate the resource person or offices at least 30 days in advance for organizing the course.
