The institution conducted a structured feedback collection process from students, teachers, alumni, and employers to assess the effectiveness of academic and administrative activities. The feedback was analyzed, and necessary actions were taken to improve the overall quality of education and institutional performance.

Sources of Feedback

Feedback was collected from the following stakeholders:

- Students (via online/offline surveys and suggestion boxes)
- Teachers (through meetings, self-appraisal reports, and structured forms)
- Alumni (through alumni meets, and structured questionnaires)
- Employers (through discussions in meetings)

Action Taken

Students wanted more industry-oriented courses, practical exposure in science and commerce streams, skill-based training.

Action Taken: Introduced certificate courses on soft skills, more exposure to different industries and collaborations.

Teachers requested for technology-based teaching aids and more Faculty Development Programs.

Action Taken: Addition of Smart classrooms and necessary faculty development programs proposed.

Alumni proposed more engagement opportunities like mentorship programs for students.

Action Taken: Proposal was welcomed and "In-house Symposium" and collaborative literary activities conducted.
