

J. K. College, Purulia: Constitutional Obligations

The curriculum of the University with which our college is affiliated includes prerequisite courses such as "Essence of Indian Traditional Knowledge," "Professional Ethics and Human Values," and the Indian Constitution. However, J.K. College, Purulia goes beyond this by organizing a variety of programs throughout the year to cultivate the essential mindset to uphold our constitutional obligations regarding values, rights, duties, and responsibilities as citizens. Annual events such as Teachers' Day, National Youth Day, Martyr's Day, Gandhi Jayanti, National Unity Day, Independence Day, and Republic Day are observed, accompanied by numerous contests and cultural activities including talks, debates, elocution, painting, poster-making, slogan-writing, and more. The college invites distinguished guests, collaborates with other academic institutions, alumni, the Bar Association, the Ramakrishna Mission, the District Science Centre, Purulia Municipality, local police, and hospital authorities to organize seminars and workshops. Students also participate in Mock Parliament sessions. In addition to these, the institution regularly hosts spiritual discourses and meditation sessions, along with awareness campaigns such as Swachh Bharat, tree plantations, and plastic bans. Blood donation camps are organized multiple times a year, and parades are conducted to raise awareness. Special efforts are made to involve staff and students in initiatives to support the underprivileged.
